WHAT DOES BROTHERHOOD MEAN TO YOU?

“To me, brotherhood is a willingness to be there and be present for those around you. You can argue and not see eye to eye sometimes, but being a brother means that, at the end of the day, you will be supportive and respectful and a friend regardless. Each of us has stories of going out of our way to make things happen in order to improve a brother’s day/week/life etc. whether that story is a time when they needed help studying or were in a tight spot in some way, we will gladly do what we can in order to assist. For us, brotherhood is a friendly yet respectful bond that we take pride in.” - Chapter President

WHY DID YOU JOIN YOUR FRATERNITY?

“I came to Mizzou from Memphis, Tennessee knowing one other person from my very small high school. I knew an ACACIA alum from a job I had worked the previous summer, so I decided to stop by and see what it was all about. I hadn’t really considered joining a fraternity beforehand, but the brotherhood and attitude of the actives changed my mind almost instantly. They were all welcoming and enjoyable to be around and provided me with a space that made Columbia feel like a second home.” - Chapter President

WHAT DOES BROTHERHOOD MEAN TO YOU?

“Brotherhood is one of the most important things to me. The purpose of BYX is to establish brotherhood and unity among college-aged men based on the common bond of Jesus Christ. So I feel like brotherhood in BYX is keeping each other accountable and growing closer together over this common bond of Jesus Christ. Also within BYX at Mizzou, we are able to be vulnerable with each other, which allows us to be closer in brotherhood.” - Recruitment Chair

WHY DID YOU JOIN YOUR FRATERNITY?

WHAT DOES BROTHERHOOD MEAN TO YOU?
"Brotherhood, a core value for our fraternity, is more than a commonality among all fraternities. We're bound by more than a sense of comradery or a familial bond. Brotherhood means more than socializing together, having common personal interests, similar goals and ambitions. It goes as far as to break down socio-economic and political barriers. Brotherhood is exemplified in our everyday interactions with one another. A personal stake that we take in each of our brothers, as they all do in us, taking their best interests, their well-being, and their future into account as we strive to be the best not only for ourselves but also for each other." - Chapter President

WHY DID YOU JOIN YOUR FRATERNITY?
"Because of the immediate, radiating sense of care and closeness the chapter displayed, along with their reputation on campus, academic history, enthusiasm for Mizzou centered history and events, and constant involvement on campus. The culture within the chapter is lived every day. People are constantly striving to meet personal goals, feeding each other positivity, help and encouragement. The sense of competition is great as everyone strives to be at the top in their respective fields. It was a true segue into Mizzou’s Greek life, campus and community as a whole."

WHAT DOES BROTHERHOOD MEAN TO YOU?

“Brotherhood is finding who you are, and your brothers accepting you for that. Our goal in Delta Upsilon is to have a brotherhood of guys from all backgrounds. It is not about us trying to be the coolest guys on campus but rather us trying to be the best versions of ourselves. Brotherhood is more than the shared memories at parties. It’s the memories you build with your brothers serving the community, raising money for philanthropies, deep conversations late at night, and having your brothers’ support through tough times. The memories you make will last a lifetime and form bonds not easily broken.” - Chapter President

WHAT DOES BROTHERHOOD MEAN TO YOU?
FarmHouse promotes the growth and welfare of our members through a four-fold focus on intellectual, social/moral, spiritual and physical development. Such occurs when brothers – both students and alumni – gather together in a learning environment that inspires continued improvement as scholars and as gentlemen of high character. Such affiliation encourages success in one’s career, in one’s personal relationships and in one’s community and civic engagement.

WHY DID YOU JOIN YOUR FRATERNITY?
FarmHouse is found on college campuses throughout North America, from coast to coast, and is a fraternity dedicated to our motto: Builder of men. FarmHouse is a college home in which a man can be creative, share responsibilities, make lasting friendships, express his inner self in an atmosphere of trust and understanding, learn lessons living in a community of which he is an integral part, be accepted as a participant, learn the essence of brotherhood, and learn the caring of one man – and of a community of men – for the individual, the brother, for the community, and for the mutual welfare.

It’s proactive, honest and has to be given to be received. It’s a tough love and one that asks each of our brothers to live to a higher standard.” - Recruitment Chair “Brotherhood, to Theta Chi, means the assisting hand. We believe firmly in helping others in any way we can, whether they be a brother or not.
